ORLANDO, FL. -- Aug. 8, 2018 -- HealthCare Support Staffing Inc., a national staffing firm specializing in contract, right-to-hire and direct hire placement of healthcare professionals, today announced that it has acquired HCS Healthcare, formally known as Healthcare Scouts.

The acquisition strengthens HealthCare Support's presence in the healthcare staffing arena by expanding its portfolio and national footprint. Through this acquisition, HealthCare Support has gained 49 new clients and doubled its Permanent Placement and Managed Service Provider (MSP) Divisions. The Company's candidate database has also increased by 40% and now reaches over 2 million candidates. HealthCare Support anticipates the increase in both candidates and clients to make a tremendous impact in the Company's short-term goal of reaching $150 million in annual revenue.

"We are pleased to announce this exciting acquisition that will pull together the best talent and resources to provide both new and pre-existing clients with the most positive experience," said HealthCare Support President James Thompson. "We were fortunate to bring over senior sales members, talented recruiters, and an experienced support team to help grow our organization. We welcome our new employees and know that these additions will position us as one of the premier healthcare staffing firms in the US."
